

CHECKLIST FOR ECE 109L LAB REPORT _____

WINTER 2006

A.P. FELZER

- _____ I have reviewed the templates for tables and circuit diagrams

- _____ This lab report is neat, easy to read, well organized and well spaced
- _____ This lab report is written on only one side of the paper
- _____ This lab report has a title and an objective

- _____ Every question has an underlined heading
- _____ Every underlined heading is a declarative statement - not a copy of the question

- _____ Every result is labeled as calculated or measured
- _____ Every table comparing results has a conclusion

- _____ Every variable has units
- _____ Every measured and every calculated circuit variable is labeled on its circuit

- _____ Data points are clearly shown on computer graphs
